5. Privacy policy

We collect personal information for the process of processing the chosen products and services, such as yoga classes, workshops, healing sessions and Yoga Teacher Training. We handle personal information very carefully and according to DPIA (data protection impact assessment).

We use your personal data for:

- Studio registration in our customer base
- Financial administration
- Providing relevant information and material on the chosen product or service.

Information will be provided by e-mail, phone and occasionally by post.

Yoga Therapy Training

We offer the Yoga Therapy Training in collaboration with the Yoga Vidya e.V. in Germany and therefore will provide Yoga Vidya e.V. with the necessary information to process their part of the training: the intensive weeks, examination and certification.

All main teachers of the Teacher Training have signed a confidential statement. Personal experiences, personal sharing and content of mentoring talks will be kept confidential and will only be discussed within the close training board, to be able to provide you the best guidance.
